Atlanta Transportation Trailblazer Recognized as one of "25 Most Powerful Women to Watch"

ATLANTA, GEORGIA January 19, 2006 Sharon Burton, President and CEO of The Robart Companies headquartered in Duluth, GA, received honors at Atlanta Woman Magazine's "25 Power Women to Watch" awards at Atlanta's TWELVE Hotel. The 25 women named are considered metro-Atlanta's up and comers in terms of the power they yield. The magazine defines these "power" women as those who stand out as inarguably influential within their spheres.

Atlanta Woman Magazine Editor-In-Chief Dianne Bernez added, "We were impressed by the number and level of achievements Sharon Burton has attained at this point in her career. She is a power woman to watch in Atlanta and the transportation field, and we are pleased to salute her many achievements and contributions." Women were honored in the areas of Entrepreneurs, Financial Services, Technology, Real Estate, Arts and Entertainment, Non-profit, Law, Sports, Media, Crusaders, Hospitality and Corporate.

When asked of her thoughts as being one of the top 25, Sharon said, "I am so very honored to even be considered a candidate for such a prestigious award, and to be a part of a group of women who have contributed so much to their professions and the community as a whole."
